Cajun is a 15.1-hand gelding built for the arena, the ranch, or the one-horse owner looking for a horse that can do it all. He has been ridden on the ranch, travels confidently through the pasture, brush, over logs, threw water and is confident. This horse has seen cattle, chickens and goats, working dogs and kids on motorcycles. He has been roped on outside and in the branding pen. Cajun is the kind of horse that catches everyone's eye. In the arena, he has been tracking the roping dummy, is good on his leads, and is showing a natural interest in roping and has been out of the box a handful of times. This horse is smart and has power and speed. He is easy to catch, worm, bathe, shoe, he jumps right in the trailer and can be loaded with cattle. Cajun has the foundation and breeding to excel as a barrel horse, he has been started on barrels lightly and taken to town to see sights

Turk is a half Andalusian, half Quarter Horse with a lot of eye catching looks to him with his tiger stripe dun factor. He is a very easy going, hard to bother horse. He has roped and drug calves at brandings, as well as roped a few calves and cows outside. He stands at 15 hands and has nice straight feet and legs on him. The kids ride him wherever they need to go and he packs them along quietly. He is not a fast energetic horse, just an easy going guy. No buck or nonsense in him. If he is in a real big pen with other horses running around, he will be hard to catch. Otherwise in a smaller pen he is just fine. Please feel free the call and leave a message if you are interested in Turk! VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 406-784-2903. Coggins.

With the brains of Beth, the grit of Kayce, the tenacity of John, and Spencer's good looks, you get the whole Dutton package right here. Mix in the heart of Rip Wheeler and you can't go wrong. We have had Spencer since he was a yearling and he has been busy growing up in the hills south of Billings, MT building his own street smarts with living off the land and running with mares, geldings and colts not to mention a dog or two. He has 4 solid hooves under him and a rock solid build. We haven't had much time to handle him hence why we have decided to sell him, so he is an open book for his new trainer with minimal handling. You wouldn't know that due to the fact that when you catch him, he follows you around waiting to do something with you. He does have one secret that makes him love you more which I will share with his new owner lol. He is not a wild child, but he isn't 100% tame, but he is willing to move on. He does have one small scar on right front pastern from a cut he got before I got him but it in no way interferes with his life. He will make one HECK of big circle horse, built solid to drag bulls in the future and a brain that won't freak out in those types of situations. This is a pedigree packed with proven race horses that continues to cross over exceptionally well into the barrel pen. She has a solid foundation, is soft in the face, easy to ride, and has all the buttons. She rides quietly, stays relaxed both in and out of the arena, and is ready for someone to continue seasoning her. One of Miracle Girl's best qualities is her disposition. She has exceptional ground manners, stands quietly for the farrier, is easy to catch, haul, saddle, and handle, and is a pleasure to have in the barn. She is calm, quiet, confident outside, and isn't the spooky type. She is AQHA Barrel Futurity eligible and will be ready to go in November. Notes: ONLINE SESSION – 14hh. If you're looking for a talented young prospect that's been given the time to mature the right way, this colt deserves a serious look. With four months of professional training spread out since January, he's been brought along slowly and correctly instead of being rushed. The result is a quiet-minded, willing colt with a solid foundation and a bright future. He has all the fundamentals in place-picks up both leads, has a nice stop, correct spins, and is confidently progressing exactly how a young horse should. He's soft, responsive, and has the kind of mind that makes him enjoyable to ride every day. He's confident, gentle, and willing wherever you point him, making him just as enjoyable outside the arena as he is in it. He's also good to catch, tie, load, bathe, and shoe. Broke and ready to go in any direction! We purchased her as a yearling. She was started by Jeremy Young and has continued her training with us. She's got size, good bone, plenty of withers, and all the shape you'd want in a good mare. Going back to Corona Cartel, she's got natural speed and plenty of life. She's been lightly started on the roping sled and barrels, been ridden through rough country, crosses water, and lopes pretty circles. She loads easily in the trailer, picks up all four feet, is good for the farrier, and handles a tarp like a champ. She's the kind of mare that's easy to have around. She's been turned out with both mares and geldings and has always been a pleasure to own. Born in the mountains and raised in the hills, she's sure-footed, hardy, and accustomed to all kinds of country. She's a willing and teachable mare with a lot of life ahead of her. Ranch on her, turn her into a barrel or rope horse, or simply enjoy her as a good riding horse. She's the kind that's fun to have around and easy to look at. I have thoroughly enjoyed this mare but need to sell her to help pay for my last year of college. Jazzy has a small scar on her front right foot. She is completely sound. Chanel
2018 Grade Appaloosa Molly Mule
Rafter D Mules Dillon Corrington Hastings, MN

Chanel has the eye appeal of a Lamborghini, the power of a Ram, and is as user friendly as a '95 Chevy. She rides as fancy as she looks, and will draw attention no matter which corner of the world you take her to. This is one of the coolest mules we have ever had the chance to offer. Chanel is as fancy as she sounds and has nothing but class to offer. She is an incredibly versatile mule who endlessly proves why mules are so popular! Whether you prefer riding western or English, she has you covered. She is a mule with an incredible amount of heart that is matched by just as much talent. She has been started on jumps and certainly loves them! We have also used her to train pack mules and have gone on many trail rides. She has all of the endurance you could ask for no matter what you ask her to do! Chanel is a rare gem, the type that doesn't come along often. We have had her in training, and she has been a pleasure to work with. She lopez even, pretty circles and has a nice departure for a mule! She rides quietly through thick brush and easily crosses downed timber. She crosses water, even water with current, and has even been ridden around traffic. She will ride out quietly and confidently whether alone or in a group. As previously mentioned, not only does she ride Western and English, but she also rides bareback, bridleless, and in a war bridle. She is exceptional in every way! Chanel is very personable, but like most mules she likes to get to know you first! She loads and hauls well, backing out of a trailer the very best. She stands to be mounted with the mounting block as well. She is used to being turned out with other horses and mules but also stalls well. Stands tied and cross tied. Picks up all of her feet, bathes quietly, catches and bridles easily. For more information on Chanel, or to schedule a time to meet her prior to the sale, contact Dillon at Rafter D Mules. Notes: ONLINE SESSION – 15.1hh. If you're looking for a young horse with the talent, mind, and foundation to make a top-tier rope horse, take a look at Boss. Boss is an exceptional-minded gelding that's gentle enough for everyday use but talented enough to continue climbing the ranks in the roping pen. He's confidently heading and heeling and has also been started on the breakaway side, making him a versatile prospect with a bright future. He's been hauled to jackpots throughout Arizona and is currently getting seasoned at the Cody night rodeos, taking every new experience in stride. The lights, crowds, and atmosphere don't bother him—he's the same honest horse every time you saddle him. Outside the arena, Boss is the kind everyone wants in the barn. He handles all the ranch chores, packs flags, crosses water, stands tied all day, clips, bathes, loads, hauls, and is great for the farrier. He's soft in the face, easy to ride, and has a great handle that makes him enjoyable for riders of all levels. Boss is athletic, cowy, and built to last. Boss is ready to go to work. Notes: ONLINE SESSION – Thirty Eight Special comes with real ranch life experience, and ready to add to his resume. Carlos is an in your pocket type of gelding. He stands right at 15hh, and 1100 #s. He's the first to meet you at the gate in the mornings with a kind personality. You can saddle up and go with no funny business. He willingly rides off from the barn, away from other horses, and across water or bogs. Carlos runs out in the pasture and gets along well with other horses. Carlos has been exposed to many unique situations on our place and takes them all in stride. He's good to shoe, load, and stands tied nicely. Carlos is paid current in the Pink and Ruby Buckle incentives, as well as Cowboy States and the Gold Rush. He is also eligible to compete in the Royal Crown events, 5-State, Gridiron, Glacier Chaser Classic, and Homegrown Stallion incentives. Carlos's sire, Armednfamous has been a standout money earner his futurity and maturity years, along with qualifying for the MT Circuit Finals and finishing as the average champion, in addition to qualifying for the American Semifinals. Notes: ONLINE SESSION – We bought "Mercedes" as a yearling. She was smaller as a 2 year old so we turned her back out to grow a bit more. She has a later start but coming on well. Teagan has put 60 days on her around the ranch. Sound and has not been over rode, never exposed to a stallion. Hot and dry here at home, so some of these girls have to go. Those who have ridden Jaguarr progeny consistently point to one defining trait: trainability. His colts are known for their minds. They want to work. They want to do what's asked. Wyldcat, a money earner in the reined cow horse, is proof that his offspring can excel far beyond what their barrel pedigree might suggest. Her dam, Four J Fast Stripper, has served as a productive broodmare in performance and arena horse programs. Swagger is the first to meet you at the gate, and truly one of a kind. Swagger will walk jog and lope circles, he shows to be athletic and have enough cow sense to go to a cow, but also good natured enough for anyone to get along with him on the trails or in the arena as well. I've trail rode swagger all over Kentucky and hocking hills Ohio and he will go wherever he is asked, he's brave, outgoing and reliable on the trails. Swagger will climb any hill, there's not a creek to deep or a mountain to steep, swagger will go wherever he is asked and always has a "yes ma'am" attitude. I use swagger daily to check our cattle and he will trot out through our fields with a big dropped rein like an old broke ranch horse. Glory — Our Real-Life Barbie Horse. Glory is the sweetest, most beautiful girl with the kind of personality everyone falls in love with. She is calm, gentle, easy to be around, and rides quietly. She absolutely loves people and will follow you around like a big puppy just wanting to be part of whatever you're doing. Glory does have an old hip injury that we want to be completely upfront about. She has gone through PT and recovery and does very well day to day. Her main limitation is lifting one of her rear feet for trimming. With a patient, experienced farrier who understands how to work with her comfortably, she is easy to manage. She is affectionate, kind, sensible, and truly one of those horses that is just a joy to have around. If you've always wanted your own Barbie horse with a puppy-dog personality, Glory is pretty hard to beat. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 406-396-1392. Coggins.

Nic is registered with the Friesian Heritage Horse and Sporthorse International. Nic has plenty of trail and backcountry experience and is comfortable covering miles of country. He crosses water, steps over logs and handles rough terrain with confidence. Whether you're riding local trails or heading into the backcountry, Nic is a dependable horse that enjoys having a job. Nic is also broke to drive, but he has not been driven in a few years. He stands quietly for the farrier and is current on vaccinations (5-way), deworming and teeth. Best suited for an intermediate rider, Nic is looking for a home where he'll continue to be enjoyed on the trail and out in the mountains. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 712-899-5752. Coggins.

14.1hh. Little Bee is one of a kind, she's safe, fun, honest and reliable. If you're wanting the perfect sized mount that is also safe for anyone, look no further. Little Bee sets the bar very high on the term "good mare", she's the first to meet you at the gate, she stands for everything a broke horse should, and she will fit anyone's riding style. If you're a beginner wanting to learn, little bee can teach you everything. If you're an experienced horseman and want a good gritty little horse to go check your cattle, Little Bee has done it for years and she'd be happy to pack you as well! Little bee has a one hand neck rein, and we've even rode her bridleless, she will walk, trot, lope stops on whoa and will side pass to grab all of your gates. On the ground little bee has good manners and enjoys her people, leave her off 6 days, 6 weeks or 6 years and Little Bee will saddle up the same each and every time. Pancho

Bob Engle Clyde Park, MT

Pancho is the kind of draft-cross horse lovers dream of. Beautiful conformation, 16hh, not too wide, good withers, a great disposition, and only 6 years old. Catch him anywhere, jump on bareback and ride off, or sit on a fence and he will pick you up. If you can hold the reins you can ride this horse. From experienced horsemen to beginners this horse is fun to ride. He has spent most of his time with us in the mountains and on trail rides. He's happy leading the group, following behind, or riding out alone. Pancho crosses water, bridges, and trail obstacles with ease. An inexperienced rider rode him on a 10 day pack trip into the Thorofare of Yellowstone Park last summer. Highline, electric fence, or just turn him loose in the backcountry. Safe in town around traffic, dogs, and ATVs. Will lope a pretty circle in the arena, has gathered cows at ranch brandings, and is broke to drive. Loves to be groomed, easy to saddle, and good to shoe. Ride him every day or once a year and he's the same solid, dependable horse. Current on worming, shoes, and teeth. Molly
2017 Grade Sorrel Mare
Karin Zehm Manhattan, MT

TAMale "MOLLY" 14 HH Molly is the kind of mare that will keep you moving. She's a sweet girl with a big motor, plenty of try, and a deep well of energy. She can be a little bit of a Sour Patch Kid — hot and sensitive at times — so she's best suited for someone who appreciates a mare with some go and knows how to ride one. Molly has spent the past year being packed on and cowboied on, and she is ready to get out and cover some country. She has the stamina to go all day, every day and doesn't quit when the work gets long. She has also been started roping out of the box, and I think she could make a really fun team roping or jackpot prospect for the right person. She's athletic, willing, and has plenty of speed and energy to bring to the table. She does settle down with time and work, but she is not a dead-broke, push-button type of mare. She has a motor and will require a confident, capable rider who can appreciate that quality and continue putting miles on her. Molly would make a great fit for someone looking for a versatile, gritty mare to ranch, pack, rope, and put miles on. Scar on hind left foot, and some other marks that have not caused lameness.
